January 14, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

San Antonio, January 14, 2021-- The Carabin Shaw Law firm is continuing its mission to help fight COVID-19 in Texas. The Firm has donated Healthcare Kits to the Gonzaba Medical Group which will be distributed to patients tested positive on a daily basis.

The Oximeter Healthcare Kits will be distributed in this manner:

Internal COVID Team (internal Team that assists with employee cases); all 3 Gonzaba Urgent Care locations who see possible COVID cases; case managers who go to patients' homes to provide care; the kits will also be distributed to Gonzaba physicians who are seeing COVID cases at 7 clinic locations.

"We're thankful for community partners such as Carabin Shaw for contributing such necessary items to our patients during such a difficult time. This is just one more way that we're able to treat our community - como familia, like family," said Dr. Bill Gonzaba, CEO Gonzaba Medical Group.

Along with the donation partnership with Gonzaba Medical Group, Carabin Shaw Law firm over the past 3 months delivered pulse oximeter healthcare kits to additional non-profit organizations to fight COVID-19 in the San Antonio community. These pulse oximeters are for at-home monitoring to help those with COVID-19 to measure the oxygen levels in their blood. The kits are being provided to help those individuals who have the symptoms of COVID-19 and need to monitor their health condition at home. The kits also contain a thermometer.

"Monitoring your personal health during an active case of COVID-19 is important," said Jamie Shaw, founder of Carabin Shaw. "Our community needs extra support during this COVID-19 pandemic, and we are thankful for community partners who are joining in our effort to offer more resources to those in need."
