New York Bride of Raleigh, a bridal shop in Garner, NC, is proud to announce that they are now carrying the new line of Allure Couture wedding dresses. The Raleigh Bridal Shop looks forward to fitting many brides with this gorgeous collection. Additionally, they have launched a number of new lines of bridesmaids dresses that match the Allure Couture gowns.

"Allure Couture is known all over the world for its stunning gowns," says Tracy Burke from New York Bride of Raleigh. "Any self-respecting bridal shop simply has to carry their line. We are so happy to have received the latest gowns and we couldn't be happier about the fact that we will be playing a role in couples finding their happily ever after."

Allure Couture is known for its captivating, dramatic dresses. The gowns are known to be cosmopolitan and sophisticated. The dresses are nothing short of refined and come in a variety of styles, including mermaid dresses and ballgown dresses. Regardless of a woman's figure, an Allure Couture dress can be found to match it.

When it comes to wedding dresses Raleigh, NC bridal shops, like New York Bride of Raleigh, know that some Allure Couture dresses are simply a little bit too much 'out there'. This is why they also carry the line of Allure Bridal, which focuses more strongly on timeless elegance. These dresses also come in a variety of styles, but the emphasis is more on the detailing in the actual fabric and design.

To make a bride's day truly special, the Raleigh bridal shop also offers a number of Raleigh bridesmaid dresses. Their collections include After Six, Bari Jay, Dzage, and Sorella Vita to name but a few. "Our bridesmaids dresses also come in many different styles and lengths to compliment the bride's gown," adds Tracy Burke. "We love working with our brides to find a bridesmaid dress that really complements her chosen color scheme and that doesn't outshine the bride's gown." Specialists in the store are highly knowledgeable on how to choose a bridesmaid dress that emphasizes the beauty of the bride, as well as complementing the body shape of the bridesmaids.
