January 30, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Palmtree Cash Home Buyers, a property company offering its services in South Florida and areas around Florida, says that its service is the perfect way to sell properties inhabited by hoarders, or "hoarder homes" as they are called. The company says that it can buy the house regardless of the junk hoarded in its walls.

Hoarding is a disorder that is found in an estimated 2 to 6 percent of the population. It often leads to severe problems with day to day activities as the afflicted person tends to focus a lot of time and energy on saving and storing items that most would consider worthless. Hoarding disorder is more common in males than females. It is also more common among older adults as three times as many adults 55 to 94 years are affected by hoarding disorder compared to adults 34 to 44 years old. Palmtree Cash Home Buyers recognizes that it is an issue that pops up sometimes during home sales and it wants to assure its customers that they will make the experience of selling the house as smooth as possible, even if the property is a "hoarder house". The company recommends those with hoarder houses searching online for "We buy houses" to give their service a consideration.

The company offers tips for those who are planning to move out of their home soon and think they might have too much stuff to move. It says that since the house needs to be staged, it is important to first begin organizing everything in the home. The company says that it is very easy to feel overwhelmed when looking at the piled up items, the numerous filling closets, cupboards, and rooms. The company says that it is completely natural to not know where to begin. The best option is to start organizing the contents in a way that makes the most sense, putting similar items together. This way the homeowners can go through said items, determining what to give away and what to keep. Another option is to plan to go room by room through the house, deciding what to do with the items as they come.

The company says that if the total items are unmanageable and not worth the effort, the company would still be willing to buy the house as it is - junk and all. The company claims to be the fastest, easiest, and most stress-free way to sell a hoarder house in Broward County and Palm Beach County, Florida. The company says that it prides itself on its honesty, professionalism, and real market experience. The company handles all kinds of clients who might be facing a wide variety of problems such as the house might be about to go into foreclosure, or they might have unwanted rental property, or they might have a vacant property, or they might have inherited an unwanted property, or they might need to relocate quickly and sell the current house fast, or if they might want to avoid paying realtor commissions, or they might be going through a divorce, or they might have little or no equity and might need to sell quickly.

A spokesperson for the company, Fitz Thompson, says, "When you sell to us, we will buy the house as-is, no matter what you want to leave behind. We will handle your unwanted hoarder house. You will be able to sell your house now without any cleaning, repairs, or property showings. You can have all the time you need to clean out what you wish to keep and we will close whenever you are ready. If you need to sell a hoarder house, reach out to our team before committing to an agent. Our team will make sure the selling process is fast and easy so you can sell your house fast without any extra costs, hassles, or wasted time. We want you to benefit from our vast experience."
