

Allstar Attitude Award Goes To Alicia Ingram

January 19, 2021

Zionsville, Indiana - January 19, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Reindeer Auto Relocation announces the winner at their annual ceremony.

Reindeer Auto Relocation recently awarded an Allstar Attitude Award to their long time employee Alicia Ingram. The Allstar Attitude Award recognizes those outstanding employees who are optimistic and have a can-do attitude. They are team players and build strong relationships with co-workers. The award also recognizes strong communication, attention to detail, and consistently going beyond what is expected. Ingram received this award at last months? annual ceremony.

Ingram is a Quality Care Support Supervisor with the vehicle and freight of any kind relocation service. She has been with the company for nearly ten years. As a quality care supervisor, she handles all the initial claims and follows through with clients providing efficient and timely communication. Working throughout all departments, with a variety of duties, Ingram reviews all open claims. She determines if charges are involved, facilitates the assignment, sends claim forms, returns calls, and provides written information to the customers. She gives timely follow-up on all detail assignments to ensure customer expectations are met and closes those that have been resolved.

?Alicia is a leader, and her overall attitude is so positive. She is a team player, committed and devoted,? says

Jessica Clark,director of quality care/hr, of Reindeer Auto Relocation. ?Alicia?s optimistic attitude is contagious, and we love working with her.?
