January 29, 2021

Palm Springs, California - January 29, 2021 -
Palm Springs Area Real Estate, a company based in Palm Springs, CA, has announced the relaunch of their newly updated website, which features more than 500 pages of real estate for sale listings, allowing people to search home styles and neighborhoods. The site possibly features the most extensive listing of local city subdivisions and subcomplexes, and communities in the seven cities that comprise the Coachella Valley, including Palm Springs, La Quinta, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert, Bermuda Dunes and Indian Wells.

The real estate listings featured at the Palm Springs Area Real Estate are made up of various home styles. These include modern style homes, bungalow style homes, California style homes, contemporary style homes, country style homes, hacienda style homes, swimming pool homes, income properties, Italian style homes, luxury homes and condos, Mediterranean style homes, Mexican style homes, mid-century homes, mid-century condos, mission style homes, modern ranch style homes, new homes, Palm Springs condos, ranch style homes, single-family homes, Southwest style homes, Spanish style homes, traditional style homes, and Tuscan style homes.

There are many mid-century homes and condos and mid-century modern homes in Palm Springs and the seven main cities to choose from, all of which provide that vintage feel but with a modern flair. The predominant home style in Palm Springs is mid-century modern, although the houses have widely varying looks with flat roofs, sloped roofs, angular or minimalist construction, and the wide array of colors.

And then, there are the ranch style homes that have aesthetic clean lines that blend with the surrounding area and improve the landscape. Ranch style homes tend to surprise people when they enter the house because of the large amount of spaces available. For ranch style homes, the main living areas are usually not divided, allowing the residents to specify how they are used. One of the reasons for the spacious feel is the amount of light is allowed to get inside the home, such as big windows that are positioned in such a way that the light that can get in is maximized.

Those who use the real estate listings provided on the Palm Springs Area Real Estate website can also search neighborhoods in the seven cities of the Palm Springs area. The city of Rancho Mirage is one of the top-tier US cities and is only a two-hour drive from Los Angeles. It has some of the most prestigious populations with its dazzling estates and world-class medical facilities. This is city is most well-known for its Cove communities and exclusive country clubs.

The resort city of La Quinta is considered to be one of the top golf destinations in the United States, and one of these is the La Quinta Resort and Club, which was established in 1926. The golf course at The Quarry was designed by Tom Fazio and is one of the top 100 golf courses in the US. Meanwhile, in January 2008, the Arnold Palmer Classic Course at the SilverRock Golf Resort in La Quinta became one of the four host golf courses for the annual Bob Hope Chrysler Classic PGA golf tournament.

And then, there is Cathedral City, which is a desert resort city within the Coachella Valley. The city was part of the territory that was inhabited by the Cahuilla Indians, and currently, every square mile of the city is a part of the Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians reservation land.
