Cash Home Buyers Atlanta: Should I Sell My House As Is or Fix It Up

February 08, 2021

February 08, 2021 -
Cash Home Buyers Atlanta is offering advice to homeowners who are asking whether they should sell their house as is or fix it up first. This is an important question often asked by homeowners who want to sell their house, especially those who are in a hurry. The answer would depend on how much time the home seller has. It is also essential to know if there is sufficient budget for the repairs, taking into account the possibility that there could be surprises while doing the repairs, with the repair project ending up costing much more than initially predicted.

Fitz Thompson, a spokesperson for Cash Home Buyers Atlanta, says, ?If you find that there?s not enough time for making repairs and you?re not sure if your budget is sufficient for the repairs, considering that more repairs may be needed than expected, it is a good idea to simply sell the house as is to a cash home buyer. We buy houses in any condition and you need not worry because we always ensure that you will get a fair offer for your property. If your property is located in the Atlanta metropolitan area and you have a house that you can?t decide whether to sell outright or make some repairs first, don?t hesitate to call us or fill out our online form and let us know about your property.?

The people behind Cash Home Buyers Atlanta fully understand how stressful selling a house can be. This is even worse when the homeowner is in a hurry to sell the property for whatever reason, such as there is a need to move to another city because of a new job or when the homeowner is in the midst of divorce proceedings. The homeowner may also be one of those whose jobs were severely affected by the pandemic and are having problems with their monthly payments.

It is important to note all of these homeowners have several things in common. They need a quick solution for their financial situation; they want to make sure that they will get a fair price for their property even when sold as is; they don?t have sufficient funds for paying a real estate agent commission, make repairs to the house, closing fees, and more; and they just want to get rid of the house and move on with their lives.

Cash Home Buyers Atlanta has developed a reputation of being a dependable house buying service and they are ready to buy a property in any condition as long as it fits their buying criteria. They can buy houses across the United States, while focusing on Atlanta and neighboring areas. The house can be in any condition, whether it requires a lot of repairs or whether its current home financing status is upside down or not.

They also want to emphasize that they are not real estate agents and are simply interested in buying and investing in houses using their own cash. The fact they are paying cash and that they will accept a property in any condition is what will ensure that the selling process will be fast. Since the transaction would be in cash, there would be no need to wait for a bank approval for home financing, which is usually the case when selling the property through the help of a real estate agent, delaying the process by weeks or even months. And because they will accept a property in any condition and make sure to offer a fair price for the home, there would be no delay caused by the need to repair and clean the house before selling it.

Another important benefit from selling the house to a cash home buyer is that a foreclosure may be avoided. This will help prevent the homeowner?s credit rating from declining substantially, which would be the result of a foreclosure.
