January 28, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

London, ON ? Triton Plumbing + Services recently did a job for a new fried chicken restaurant that opened this month called BTRMLK The Fried Chicken Shop. The emergency plumbing company could not be more pleased with this opportunity and the results of the job.

As a locally owned company, Triton Plumbing was thrilled to help out a fellow London, ON business. BTRMLK is a restaurant that offers fried chicken and other comfort food selections. Their signature chicken sandwiches are some of their most popular items, often served with coleslaw. BTRMLK recently opened in London, ON, this month, and Triton Plumbing was pleased to have contributed by doing their plumbing.

When people think of plumbing companies, they often think of residential services, such as a leaky faucet repair or a clogged sink repair. However, Triton Plumbing also specializes in commercial plumbing. Businesses need durable plumbing because their appliances are used constantly throughout the day, especially in restaurants. This constant use of appliances, no matter how durable they are, inevitably leads to the need for frequent plumbing repairs. When that happens, Triton Plumbing is ready to swoop in and get the job done, as they are a 24/7 plumbing company.

When a business purchases a new building and begins to renovate, many plumbing-related installations are typically needed. Triton Plumbing loves to be a part of these renovations by providing the plumbing. It is exciting to help a business get ready for a grand opening, and working with BTRMLK was no exception!

As the New Year continues, Triton Plumbing + Services remains optimistic and is looking forward to new clients, new jobs, and new opportunities. They offer a myriad of plumbing services, both residential and commercial, such as frozen pipe repairs, water heater repair and replacement services, and kitchen and bathroom renovations.
