February 02, 2021 -
With more people going online, Advanced Website Strategies highlights the latest trend in Website Design in Bluffton, SC, which can surely help businesses attract more clicks.

The Bluffton-based digital marketing company says that businesses should focus on their web design beyond just having a website. "Building an interactive and high-quality website design is now a must for a business. Through its website design, a business can make a great first impression to customers," says Edward Gelb, chief executive officer for Advanced Website Strategies.

Gelb says that a business site should keep visitors engaged and make them eager for more content. To do it, Advanced Website Strategies shares the latest trend for web designs this 2021.

The leading website design company in Bluffton SC says that asymmetric layouts top the trend this 2021. Asymmetric configurations produce a more dynamic and daring design. The asymmetric design achieves visual harmony by imagining each item's weight on your page, considering the color, size, and movement of elements before arranging the composition.

The Best Website Design Company in Bluffton, SC also says that adding videos and design elements is a great way to attract customer engagement. "Adding a promotional video, testimonials, and interviews is a great way to engage with your audiences by communicating vital information with energetic flare," the company states.

Aside from videos, putting remarkable, high-resolution illustrations to the website is another excellent way to make it visually appealing. Also gaining popularity in most websites is animation. According to the top website design company, animated text or line or a full animated background are eye-catching features to visitors, enabling a great first impression.

Advanced Website Strategies has already designed websites for various top-notch companies, not just in Bluffton, SC, and the rest of the US but also in Ecuador. The company's web design experts have decades of experience and exceptional talents.

Besides website design and development, Advanced Website Strategies also does website maintenance services. They also offer online marketing, search engine optimization (SEO), lead generation services, app creation, and visual marketing. They have skilled professionals that have a firm grasp of digital marketing that helps businesses grow their profitability.

"We combine strategy and execution to maximize the outcome of every project. We are driven by challenge and love what we do," says SEO expert Edward Gelb.
