January 2021, Bluffton, SC - A modern, updated kitchen cabinet is not hard to achieve with help from experts like Professional Painters of Hilton Head.

Homeowners can incur huge savings on their kitchen renovation with Kitchen Cabinet Painting in Bluffton SC, said Carlos Santos of Professional Painters of Hilton Head. Cabinet painting transforms the old kitchen into attractive ones without spending much.

The Bluffton-based painting company also provides reasons why opting for a kitchen cabinet painting job rather than a full-blown kitchen remodeling is the best decision for homeowners in town. According to Professional Painters of Hilton Head, the average kitchen remodeling cost is around $10,000. But with kitchen cabinet painting, homeowners get to save almost half of this cost. They save on fees for removal and disposal as well as the installation of new ones.

Aside from monetary saving, kitchen cabinet painting also helps homeowners save time. A complete kitchen remodeling can take six to 12 weeks or sometimes even longer, whereas kitchen cabinet painting can be done in just a week.

The Best Painting Contractor in Bluffton, SC says, "With lesser time and money requirement, homeowners can easily see the improved look of their kitchen with kitchen cabinet painting." Moreover, newly-painted kitchen cabinets further increase home value. Homes with new and modern kitchen cabinets attract more buyers and sell faster. The painting company further adds that kitchen cabinets are indeed an investment with a greater return.

"Having your kitchen cabinets painted makes it more appealing to potential buyers. This is because it saves potential buyers from having to spend a fortune on kitchen remodeling," Santos says.
