Okeechobee, Florida - February 10, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Few companies can match the patriotism that online retailer Ultimate Flags displays. This is evident from the moment someone goes to check out Ultimate Flags website and the first thing that pops into sight at the top of their homepage is a big photo of a replica "Don't Tread on Me" Flag. This also clearly shows that the company is a staunch supporter of 2nd Amendment rights. They have even devoted an entire flag collection to this "right to keep and bear arms" as part of that support.

Jonica Hough, the company's spokesperson, says, "Our forefathers who wrote "The Bill of Rights" had a keen desire as far as what they wanted to be drafted into this important document. They had just experienced for themselves what it was like living under an oppressive government that used its far superior military might to squash their freedoms. Not only did the makers of "The Bill of Rights" feel that the right of the people "to keep and bear arms" was important, they felt it was so important they made it the second amendment that they created. It's an amendment that was designed to give our country's military reason to think twice in case they ever wanted to revert to oppressive ways."

Many of this company's customers share the same sentiments as them when it comes to 2nd Amendment rights. Hough informed that this is reflected in the fact that it's one of their best-selling flag collections. This 2nd Amendment-related flag collection has items that reflect all levels of sentiment toward the "right to keep and bear arms" too. That includes everything from simple yellow and American style flags with the words "Don't Tread on Me" or "2nd Amendment" emblazoned on them to flags for more die-hard 2nd Amendment supporters that say "Come and Take It" or "Live Free or Die". She added this collection also features banners, garden flags, and hats that express similar sentiments as those mentioned above.

The patriotism that Ultimate Flags shows does not start and end with their 2nd Amendment flag and banner collection either. Hough pointed out that they have even started a YouTube video series that features stories of American soldiers and politicians. Featured in the videos that they have produced so far are Dwight D

Eisenhower, Abraham Lincoln, and several lesser-known soldiers that fought on both sides of the Civil War conflict. They encourage patriots and history buffs alike to view their historical videos on YouTube. Ultimate Flags also posts many blogs that pay tribute to US soldiers whose acts of bravery over the years should make Americans proud of them. They also show their patriotism with their large selection of American flags. She stated that this collection includes such historic flags as replicas of the original Betsy Ross flag and the current US flag with all 50 states represented by stars. Other flag collections that have a patriotic flair to them include their large assortment of flags that represent the different branches of the military and flags and banners that represent every state in the country. The company owner stated that their patriotic flags and banners come in all different qualities too, that way every proud American can find one that fits into their budget.

Ultimate Flags has had many glowing reviews left on their services too. Erin T wrote, "5 stars. Way above and beyond with product and customer satisfaction. Fast response to emails, great customer service, and stellar product. Definitely will be giving future business! Highly recommend these guys to anyone looking for quality flags. 100% satisfied with the extremely large selection of flags as well. A++ keep up the phenomenal work!" People can also refer to their Google Maps Business Listing if they want to see more reviews such as this one where Thomas Fischer emphatically stated, "Ultimate Flags has great customer service. After multiple orders, I'm not going to be buying flags from anyone else." This is one of 30 reviews that have been left on the company's GMB Listing where Ultimate Flags averages a very favorable 4.9 out of a possible 5-stars.

Those that would like to see more information on this company's flags, banners, and other products can refer to their website. Their shoppers will find many high-quality photos of their flags and other products and each comes complete with a very detailed description of that product.
