

Reindeer Auto Presents Allstar Attitude Award to Anne Adams

February 17, 2021

Zionsville, Indiana - February 17, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Client Service Support Specialist is recognized as a valuable member of the Reindeer Auto Relocation team.

Reindeer Auto Relocation awarded Anne Adams the Allstar Attitude Award for excellence in service. The Allstar Attitude Award recognizes those outstanding employees who are optimistic and have a can-do attitude. Anne Adams is a client service support specialist whose upbeat attitude, communication skills, and attention to detail won her the award, which was given at their annual ceremony recently. She has been with Reindeer Auto since 2018.

As a client service support specialist, Adams is responsible for the accurate and timely entering of all order data, account setups, and billing procedures. She meets goals and effectively fulfills her duties in a rapidly, fast-paced, and changing environment. Adams handles various workflow and volume no matter the time of day. Besides providing quotes to clients, she assists in special projects, assists in other departments, and manages incoming calls quickly and professionally. Her ability to prioritize and multitask made her a clear winner for this award.

?Annie is a joy to work with,? says Andy Hadley, Director if Sales at Reindeer Auto. "She is a team player, always saying yes. She'll cover for a coworker or work in another department. Her sunny disposition always makes even the rough days that much better."

Anne Adams was born and raised in Toronto, Canada, where she attended school at George Harvey Collegiate Institute. She enjoys spending time with her husband and their two dogs exploring new food, travel, culture, and art. Before coming to Reindeer Auto, she was a bank teller.
