February 18, 2021 -
Deerfield Beach, FL ? As the need for high-quality addiction treatment grows amidst a national epidemic of drug and alcohol abuse, Legacy Healing Center was recently recognized for its addiction services in South Florida.

To help residents find the best treatment options near them, Help.org published its recommendations of the best rehab centers in Deerfield Beach, Florida, and Legacy Healing was among the area's top options. To identify the best treatment centers for Deerfield Beach residents, Help.org considered the cost, demographics of programs, treatment approach, and ancillary services available to residents as part of its criteria. The rankings were created as part of the website's mission to provide guides and resources to support people impacted by drug and alcohol addiction.

Deerfield Beach citizens live in Broward County, where 8% of deaths in the county from 1999 to 2018 were due to some form of drug or alcohol use. Located in Broward County, Legacy Healing Center offers a solution to locals trying to overcome their addictions. The behavioral health facility provides a wide range of rehabilitation treatment options and services while specializing in offering individual treatment that is custom-tailored for each client.

Legacy Healing Center incorporates a range of therapies into its treatment plans along with a gender-based detox program, including individual, group, and family therapy. The facility aims to pinpoint the underlying causes of addiction to help patients learn how their behaviors impact addiction and make lasting changes.

Whether it's an addiction to opioids, heroin, methamphetamine, cocaine, alcohol, or prescription drugs, Legacy Healing Center has the services and facilities for Deerfield Beach residents trying to overcome their addictive behaviors. In addition to receiving recognition from Help.org, Legacy Healing Center's facility for Deerfield Beach residents has garnered a 4.9 rating from 30 reviews on its Google My Business page.
