February 2021, Bluffton, SC - As the hurricane season nears, Holliday Home Improvements, the leading windows and door replacement company, is now offering Hurricane Impact Window installation services.

In comparison to standard windows, hurricane impact windows are obtained through a progression of careful preliminaries. They are designed to overcome strong wind forces, according to the Bluffton-based replacement window installation company. Hurricane impact windows are used to withstand conditions present during a hurricane as well as heavy hail or ice. It can also withstand category five wind and the flying debris that accompanies them during a hurricane, the company explained further.

"Storm safe windows will secure your property and improve hurricane seasons for quite a long time to come," says Jason Holliday, founder and owner of Holliday Home Improvements. He adds that besides protection against heavy winds or even tornadoes and severe thunderstorms, hurricane impact windows also offer more benefits.

Holliday Home Improvements says that aside from strong winds, hurricane impact windows also guard against UV light, which can damage furnishings and even human skin. This type of window blocks UV lights. Hurricane impact windows are also strong enough to prevent intruders from breaking in. Thus, it also provides theft protection, according to Holliday Home Improvements.

The Leading Home Improvement Company likewise emphasized that hurricane impact windows are easy to install. They say, "Impact windows require little work to install and fewer additional material to open the window. It also saves you money. So whether you choose to install your impact windows or hire a professional window installation company, you will find ease installing the windows and saving money in the process."

Meanwhile, Holliday Home Improvements offers free quotations for customers in Hilton Head and Bluffton, SC, and now in Pooler and Savannah, GA. The company provides high-quality, durable, beautiful, and energy-efficient premium windows, which can be custom-built.

"We design, install, guarantee, and service your windows, without a middleman. We do it all, with endless custom options," the replacement window company adds.
