September 22, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Irvine, California-based van rental company United Van Rentals has recently announced a new line of services. The company offers airport van rentals that come with a suite of complimentary services.

"We offer a number of services, such as free pickup, that other companies do not provide," says business manager Louis Della Penna. "Not many places will allow you to pick up and drop off 24 hours a day, either. These are just a couple of the ways we're going the extra mile for our clients."

Complimentary airport shuttle services include pick up at the airport and drop off at the company's office for van rental. They offer customers a fast and easy delivery service, with no long lines waiting for a taxi or other rental services. When returning a rented van to the company, they also provide free transportation back to the airport.

Those needing to rent a van can also have the company deliver their rental vehicle to the airport for them. This allows for instant access upon luggage retrieval. Keys and a parking ticket are left in the glove compartment or another predetermined place for customers. Upon returning the rental vehicle, customers simply have to drop the vehicle off in the company's parking lot and leave the keys in the glove compartment, inside the locked vehicle.

"Our aim is to make it easier for our customers to get the vehicle that they need, and to return it when they are finished with it," states Della Penna. "We offer services that are specifically designed for customer convenience."

United Van Rentals offers a number of different sized vans for customer convenience. Van sizes range from minivans to 11, 12, and 15 passenger vans. The rental lineup includes Ford E250 cargo vans, as well as Ford E350 and Chevy Express full-sized vans, Ford Transit vans, a number of Toyota and Dodge minivans, and several others.

Rental services are available throughout airports in Los Angeles County, Orange County, San Diego, Palm Springs, San Francisco, Phoenix, and Las Vegas, and are offered seven days a week.
