February 25, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Denton, TX ? A Denton USPS shipping store, Pack ?N? Mail, has revealed that the United States Postal Service (USPS) has announced a new line of stamps to celebrate 50 years since the first installment in the Star Wars franchise, ?Star Wars: A New Hope?. Specific details, such as the release date, will be announced on the USPS website later this year.

The new stamps will feature the more well-known droids playing pivotal roles in the Star Wars galaxy. The ten characters that will be found on the stamps are C-3PO, R2-D2, BB-8, IG-11, K-2SO, L3-37, D-O, a GNK (Gonk) power droid, C1-10P (Chopper), and a 2-1B surgical droid. The background of the stamps will also be a tribute to many memorable settings from the Star Wars franchise, including the desert planet Tatooine and the floating Cloud City above planet Bespin. Individual stamps can be purchased for $0.55 each or can be bought in a roll of 20 for $11.00. As with any commemorative stamps, this new line may only be used in sending letters, postcards, and flat envelopes using the First-Class Mail service.
