February 25, 2021 -

Miami, Fla.? As many small business owners know, an online reputation can make or break any company. As the leading custom awards store in Miami, Awards TrophyWorld, has dedicated over 6 decades to providing only the highest quality of customer care and service. This month, the team is looking back at the past and highlights its reputation within the local community.

Boasting a 4.9-star rating on Google, Awards TrophyWorld?s tradition of excellence is also apparent on Yelp and Facebook, the latter being a perfect 5 out of 5-star rating. As a locally owned and operated store, the ratings that they receive on social platforms help their business continue to thrive and grow.

?Have been going to them for at least 4 years. They are professional, friendly, and above all, satisfactory. The staff there go over and beyond when it comes to customer gratification. I can honestly say I was lucky choosing them in the beginning and will continue going to them.? writes Majid M. - previous customer.

?Oh my god, they were [the] best! Kelly the manager at the store on US1 was extraordinary and very supportive. They did my pins and Trophies in less than a week when everyone was giving me 7-8 weeks to do it.... they saved my life and my event. I am so grateful and very much satisfied, and I will definitely come back for more! ...? wrote Violeta Aizpurua, Global Manager at Trust Investing Team Halcones USA.

These glowing reviews reflect the tireless dedication to their local community over the years. The company strives to provide a wide array of custom sports trophies, awards, medallions, and plaques at the highest quality. Customers who aren?t able to find the right product for their needs will not be disappointed as specialty items can be custom-made upon request. With 3 locations across South Florida, Awards TrophyWorld is here to help their community with all their awards and trophy needs, no matter how big or small.
