Prime Finish a traditional decorating company that are based in Cambridge, Cambridgeshire have recently seen a surge in their online and offline reviews.

?We have been working really hard during the lockdown to ensure our high standards of decorating do not slip,? commented Matt the owner and hands on lead decorator, ?It is extremely important to us that we maintain our high standards that customers have come to expect from Prime Finish.?

The company is doing well with their new services announced last month, and their reviews are showing that the company is reaching their goal of being the best decorating company in the Cambridge area.

Daniel Forster recently said, ?We recently had Prime Finish paint our basement lounge and are very happy with the outcome. They did an excellent, professional job and we were very impressed with how clean they left the room at end of every day. We would have no hesitation using them again.?

Iris Gardiner also left a glowing review. ?We have just had a bedroom, toilet and bathroom redecorated and couldn?t me more happy with the quality of the work. Josh and Harvey shared the work on the first day but Harvey completed the job in another two days. The men worked quietly and diligently and left the house spotless at the end. We cannot praise their work enough.?

Again Andrew Lavens five star review showcases the company?s outstanding level of service ?We have had Matt do some work for us three times now and have recommended him to several others. He and his team are friendly and courteous as well as neat and tidy! Until now I have mostly done the painting and decorating myself - it was so much nicer having someone else do the work (and there was lot to do!). Cap that all off with a really good job and we were very pleased!?
