Bluffton, SC - Real estate gurus Yvette and Elizabeth Acuff or Acuff Properties have transformed Bluffton Real Estate over the years, putting it on higher ground.

Being the fifth largest city in South Carolina by land area, Bluffton, SC, attracts more people. It is greatly reflected in the town's significant population growth, having more than 20,000 people present. According to Acuff Properties, this Lowcountry town is also attracting more people with its growing real estate industry.

With Acuff Properties, buyers and sellers need not go out of their way to find and sell properties. Acuff Properties gather them together and connect them with the right real estate properties. Acuff Properties shows a list of the available properties for sale in Bluffton, SC, through their online listing. Their online listing is also a venue for sellers to showcase their properties.

With just a few clicks, Acuff Properties provides a list of the available homes and properties in the Bluffton area. Clients can also narrow down their search to their preferences among the Bluffton Single Family Homes for Sale. Besides all the information about the property, the listing also contains photos allowing owners to have a virtual tour of the place.

The seasoned real estate agent in Hilton Head and Bluffton, SC is also preferred by many for emphasizing customer value. "A zest for life, for my customers and for these remarkable island properties has carried me forward my entire life," says Yvette Acuff when asked what motivates her.

Meanwhile, Yvette sure knows the real estate industry, having lived in Hilton Head Island and Bluffton. She is also the brainchild of the successful Multiple Listing Service of Hilton Head Island, recognized as one of the country's top technological MLS services.

For over 40 years, Yvette maintained her broker's license and worked closely with real estate agents to promote and sell properties to the growing island and Bluffton areas. She then extended the MLS to surrounding counties to promote properties in outlying areas.

Joining her in Acuff Properties is her daughter, who also has extensive real estate experience. She has over two decades of experience in sales and marketing. At present, she is representing the Beaufort and Jasper County buyers and sellers.

"Acuff Properties is the professional you will want when it comes to buying or selling real estate in Bluffton or Hilton Head up through Beaufort, SC."
