November 04, 2014 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Midlothian, VA ? RVA Property Solutions, a premier company involved in residential and investment real estate within the greater Richmond area is now offering classes to those interested in making a career in real estate investing. These classes are open to those with or without real estate investment experience and are an extension of the company?s commitment to teaching others the correct and safe approach to making money by investing in the real estate market.

Those wishing to become a Richmond VA Real Estate Investor will have two training opportunities from which to choose. The two current programs being offered are ?Bird Dog Training Classes? and ?Real Estate Investing 101.?

The Bird Dog Training Classes have been created especially for those with little or no real estate investing experience. During the free, two-hour workshops, Rich Lennon, one of the two principles of the company, will teach the elements of becoming a ?Bird Dog.? The role of the Bird Dog in real estate is to help investors locate properties to purchase. The Bird Dog earns a fee for each property that proves a good opportunity for the investor.

The Bird Dog Training Classes include learning how to identify potential properties, where to find properties, how and why to use online research tools and how to determine payment for lead submissions.

The second class being offered is Real Estate Investing 101. This course has been designed for anyone with an interest in build a personal real estate investment portfolio. It provides hands-on training with personalized attention given to enable participants to purchase an initial investment property and get started on the path to long-term real estate investing.

Real Estate Investing 101 covers all the components of building wealth through real estate, such as how to create a strong investment strategy, financing real estate investments, inspection of properties and the documents involved in various real estate transactions.

For those interested in Richmond VA Real Estate Investing, these classes are held throughout the year. The tuition fee is waived for those students who complete all homework assignments.
