Company Representative, Russel Patrick, stated, "Our customers and their satisfaction with our services is very important to us and we welcome their feedback. We are happy to have been able to provide an exceptional experience for this customer and are looking forward to providing others with this same level of professionalism."

El Dorado Hills Tree Service Pros are accepting new customers and as incentive, the company is offering discounted rates on services such as tree removal, tree trimming, stump removal, and arborist services. Homeowners and property owners in need of tree services can take advantage of these limited time discounts to experience for themselves the great service mentioned in the video review.

El Dorado Hills Tree Service Pros have on their staff certified arborists. These certified arborists manage all client tree service jobs for the company to ensure a successful outcome. Certified arborists are very knowledgeable and have years of experience in providing tree services. The International Society of Arboriculture (ISA), the organization that many arborists receive certifications, require three years prior experience by arborists seeking to enter their certification program.

The benefit of working with a local tree service company such as El Dorado Hills Tree Service Pros is the arborist on staff will have specific knowledge of the type of trees in the region. They will have first-hand knowledge of the type of care that is necessary to maintain the health of the trees and how to best care for their continued growth.

Company Representative, Russel Patrick, stated, "Our certified arborists are very knowledgeable and skilled in providing all forms of tree service care. This puts our company in the unique position to handle any type or size tree service job. Homeowners and property owners in need of tree services and decide to work with us can have peace of mind knowing that real tree service experts are taking care of them."
