Valencia, California: Passionate Care LLC, the maker of the Passionate Care Premium Stethoscope speaks out against the belittling comments made on the daytime television talk show, The View. In a recent episode one of the hosts, Joy Behar, made a remark asking, ?Why does she have a doctor?s stethoscope on?? This remark was in reference of the Miss America contestant, who happens to be a nurse, for wearing a stethoscope during her speech in the competition.

?When we saw a video clip of this remark during our recent board meeting, every member was left stunned and speechless,? stated Raul Meza, Co-Founder of Passionate Care LLC. ?We make a high quality stethoscope that both doctors and nurses use, why? We do this because both are professionals and need the right tool to get the job done. Who in their right mind would ever consider making an inferior stethoscope to sell to nurses because they should not use the same high quality stethoscope that a doctors use? That is beyond offensive, are they saying that nurses can?t handle a real stethoscope??

The board at Passionate Care LLC quickly decided to send a public statement to the hosts and creators of ?The View? by releasing an Amazon Coupon Code labeled: Viewsuks. This Amazon Coupon Code gives a 25% off discount to both doctors and nurses on their high end Premium Stethoscope.

?I am quite frankly outraged!? exclaimed Meza. ?And I should be. I was a critical care nurse for 22 years and to have somebody question my worthiness or ability concerning my stethoscope, which is the tool of my trade is beyond infuriating. A doctor will come by once maybe twice if you are lucky in one day and listen to your lungs. As a critical care nurse I am obligated to listen to your lungs during my assessment at least 3 times a day plus any other times I suspect something has changed. Do you really want me to use an inferior stethoscope and miss important sounds Joy? That is the whole reason I went on to co-found this company. I wanted to bring high end stethoscopes to a more affordable pricing so that more of our nurses had something they could be proud of. ?

Passionate Care stated that this coupon code will remain on Amazon until the end of this month. This coupon also applies to their Premium Cardiology Stethoscope. Cardiology stethoscopes tend to be sought out more by doctors but have been adopted more and more by Intensive Care nurses and specialty nurses alike.
