Pensacola, Florida ? Gross & Schuster P.A., a Pensacola personal injury lawyer firm, is proud to announce that they are now up to five offices in the Northwest Florida area. Gross & Schuster has recently opened two locations in Milton and also in Destin, making it easier for clients in those areas with personal injury cases. Both Mr. Gross and Mr. Schuster are Board certified by the Florida Bar and have over 35 years experience each. Over the years, they expanded their firm with offices in the Crestview and Fort Walton Beach area and now Destin and Milton area, as well. These new additions will help give clients easier access to reach their lawyers. Even if the client is injured and unable to come to one of their five locations, Gross & Schuster can go see them, as well.

?I?m glad to say that we are up to five offices in the panhandle. Our primary office is in Pensacola, Florida, and we also have offices in Crestview and Fort Walton, as well. We have opened up recently in Milton and also in Destin,? says Terence Gross, one of the law partners of Gross & Schuster. He added, ?We see everybody for personal injury cases for a free consultation; if you are injured, in the hospital, or at home, we can see you, as well.?

Gross & Schuster has worked with referring attorneys and clients throughout the South to give complete legal representation in a personalized manner. If someone face criminal charges or have been injured in a car accident, the attorneys of Gross & Schuster can give them representation and guidance they need in order to seek justice and protect their rights. In the 35 years of experience that both Mr. Gross and Mr. Schuster have, they have built a great reputation at being one of the best at what they do. In addition to personal injury cases such as dog bites, auto accidents and slip-n-fall, they have in Pensacola criminal defense lawyers to try to offer as many services as possible.

Mr. Gross also mentioned, "We have a new website that we just improved." With not only the new locations to their firm, they also updated their website to help people learn more about their business on the web. Clients can now go to www.GrossandSchuster.com to see this new and improved website and learn more about their business, or call Gross and Schuster, P.A. today for a free case evaluation at 850-434-3333.
