September 18, 2015 -

ST PETERSBERG, Fla. ? DigitalProductBlueprintBonus.org launched today, offering visitors insights into Digital Product Blueprint by Eben Pagan, the popular Internet entrepreneur. DigitalProductBlueprintBonus.org offers visitors a video explaining more on the details and intricacies of the course.

"Eben's been keeping his brand new Digital Product Blueprint a secret till now," said Carl Constable of DigitalProductBluePrintBonus.org. "Our site offers a unique Digital Product Blueprint bonus on top of Eben's program, offering extra help to get a person on the right track in starting their business online. For those with an entrepreneurial spirit, this course will help them learn how to promote their brand online."

The course is designed to help people learn what they need to know to run a business on the internet. According to DigitalProductBlueprintBonus.org, the course also offers step-by-step instructions on how to create an information product. There are several instructional videos, along with reading materials, interactive forums and software.

"Eban's course not only contains fundamental instructions on creating a good website. It goes further in depth, offering instruction in email marketing, social media and customer relationship management," said Constable. "It also gives an advanced look into social bookmarking, surveys, media sharing sites, social systems administration sites, online journals and blogs."
