Lithia Springs, Georgia - March 24, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Arrowhead Clinic in Lithia Springs has recently posted a blog post explaining the responsibility of the negligent party in a car accident to cover the victim's medical bills. The blog post can be read here: <https://www.arrowheadclinic.com/lithiasprings/who-pays-for-chiropractor-after-car-accident>. A victim must see a Lithia Springs car accident chiropractor even if there are no visible signs of injury. Dr. Calvin Erhabor, the leading chiropractor in Lithia Springs, explains that injuries can take time to develop, resulting in chronic pain without timely treatment.

If the negligence of another driver caused your accident, you can be reimbursed once you have received a settlement from your personal injury claim. To have your chiropractic bills covered, it needs to be proven that they were medically necessary. A victim of a car accident needs necessary medical care to make a full recovery. This includes chiropractic care. Dr. Erhabor emphasizes the importance of medical documentation of the victim's injuries and treatment, including chiropractic care. In a previous press release, the Lithia Springs car accident chiropractor outlines need for chiropractor care after an accident.

The best car accident chiropractor in Lithia Springs will document initial symptoms, chiropractic treatments, and expenses related to the treatment. The Lithia Springs chiropractor warns that unless the symptoms are documented and injuries diagnosed initially, the victim might struggle to get compensation for the chiropractic treatment of such injuries after the settlement. That makes it difficult to determine what full and fair compensation will be, and if not handled correctly, can result in victims accumulating significant medical expenses after their settlement.

The other party's insurance company's motive is to reduce the amount of compensation they have to pay to the victim. In that regard, they try to look for loopholes in the victim's claim to prove that the victim was at least partially at fault for the accident. A Lithia Springs car accident lawyer is the best person to negotiate with the insurance company. They collect the necessary accident evidence that proves the fault of the defender and ensures that the insurance company plays by the rules.

After a car accident, a police report assigns fault to one of the drivers. If you were found at fault for the accident, your lawyer could still win your case. Police reports are considered hearsay and typically aren't admissible in court." The top auto accident attorney in Lithia Springs knows how to challenge the foundation of the accounts and exclude statements to help win the victim's case.
