Arrowhead Clinic in Duluth Shares The Best Things To Do After An Auto Accident

March 25, 2021

DULUTH, GA - March 25, 2021 -
Dr. Darris Gentry of Arrowhead Clinic in Duluth, Georgia, recently shared a blog post that explains the best things to do after an auto accident. The blog post can be read here: https://www.arrowheadclinic.com/duluth/best-thing-to-do-after-an-accident. The top chiropractor in Duluth states that a car accident can leave the victim confused and frightened, advising them to slow down and take a deep breath and ensure there are no severe injuries. Dr. Gentry suggests moving to a safe space to avoid any further injuries.
The victim should immediately see a Duluth car accident chiropractor and get injuries documented. This is important for physical and financial recovery says the Duluth, GA, chiropractor.

Before that, the victim should stop, call the police, and secure the scene of the accident if they are not severely injured. It is important to gather evidence, explains the car accident chiropractor. Car accident help is available at Arrowhead Clinic. In a previous press release, the Duluth car accident chiropractor shares what not to do after an accident.

The car accident doctor in Duluth, Ga, cautions victims against leaving the accident scene without calling

911. ?This is important because it is the law in Georgia. Having a police report can be a significant piece of evidence for your insurance claim.? Any damages to the vehicle are a sign of evidence, says the auto accident chiropractor in Duluth, adding, ?While you wait for first responders to arrive, you can also start gathering evidence yourself. Take pictures of the damage to both vehicles, as well as skid marks on the road, debris in the street, or anything else that could have contributed to the accident.?

Dr. Gentry stresses the importance of exchanging information with the other driver as this information will be valuable to the personal injury claim. The best car accident attorney in Duluth, GA, needs this information to win the compensation claim under Georgia law. Top car accident lawyers are aware of the importance of reporting the crash to the victim?s insurance company. ?If you don't report the accident soon enough, the insurance companies may choose not to help you.?

Dr. Gentry advises victims to politely decline the request from the insurance company for a recorded statement while cooperating with their investigation under the personal injury attorney?s guidance. The top Duluth car accident attorney will evaluate the victim?s claim and file a lawsuit against the negligent driver to get the best compensation for the victim?s economic and non-economic expenses. They understand the importance of preserving the evidence and doing a thorough investigation to protect the victim?s rights.
