The Law Office of Purav Bhatt is happy to announce that Attorney Purav Bhatt is offering his services as a criminal defense attorney representing people against felony indictments in the Greater Chicago area. Common felony charges include murder, sex crimes, weapons offenses, drug crimes, DUI, theft, assault and battery, and domestic violence. In Illinois, those who have been charged with a felony offense, if proven guilty, may be given a sentence of a minimum of one year or more in prison and fines amounting to $25,000 or more.

A felony conviction can have serious consequences, such as: a lifetime criminal record; costly fines; being forced to submit one?s DNA to the state of Illinois; loss of constitutional rights including the ability to possess a firearm and to vote; being required to notify neighbors of one?s felony status; and loss of employment opportunities. Those who have a felony conviction cannot be employed by the federal government, including the US military. They will also be excluded from any government aid, even if they have paid into those programs like: social security and unemployment, Section 8 housing and food stamps, and federal grants and loans.?

Attorney Purav Bhatt says, ?Most people are not familiar with the law. The average person's knowledge of the law is more than likely limited to what they see on television or read in newspapers and books. When they do get involved with the criminal law system, they do not know what to do, or how to handle the situation. Because of this, the need for information and assistance from criminal lawyers is crucial for those who are about to get involved with the criminal law system."

Purav Bhatt was previously a Cook County State?s Attorney and he has the experience to handle various kinds of misdemeanor and felony cases, traffic cases, and other legal issues, including an understanding of the prosecution?s objectives and goals. Attorney Purav Bhatt has successfully tried hundreds of bench and jury trials regarding drug offenses, animal crimes, weapons charges, thefts, gang related offenses, and violent crimes. With his firsthand experience with prosecution methods, he has achieved significant success for his clients today. He has worked for many years with detectives, police officers and investigators in building criminal cases against defendants. Thus, he is able to easily recognize any defects in such cases and develop a strong defense for his clients.

Purav Bhatt can provide criminal defense services for various kinds of charges. These include alcohol related offenses, battery & assault, cybercrime, drug offenses, forgery, hate crime, money laundering, murder/ manslaughter, robbery, solicitation, arson, burglary, disorderly conduct, extortion, fraud, larceny/ theft, motor vehicle theft, rape, sexual assault, and stalking. The Law Office of Purav Bhatt offers free consultation for those who are interested.

Former clients have given highly positive reviews for the law office. For instance, Rob C. gave them five stars on Yelp and said, ?My second experience with the firm is easily as good as my first. Jeff and Steven are great advocates, very responsive and worth the fees. The automation is helpful, too. I heeded their advice and I got the result I wanted from the court. If you get into a difficult situation with a ticket or traffic arrest, I recommend them highly. The Illinois court system is messy and slow, but if you are patient and work with FFD, you can get a good result for you, too.?

Meanwhile, on Google, Brian G. gave them five stars and said, ?I had a gun charge and hired Mr. Bhatt and he got my case dismissed. I am so happy I fired my first lawyer and hired Mr. Bhatt. It was clearly the right move. He was very informative in the beginning also told me what to expect (and it went exactly how he said it would). He always responded to my texts in a very timely manner. He is very honest and professional. So, if you get yourself into some legal issues, this is your guy. Search no longer, hire Mr. Bhatt.?
