

DUI Attorney In Denver Named Rising Star On Super Lawyers

March 31, 2021

DENVER, CO - March 31, 2021 -
The DUI Law Firm Denver, based in Colorado, is pleased to announce that one of their attorneys, Emilio De Simone, has been named a ?rising star? on the Super Lawyers platform. This recognition is quite prestigious, as highlighted by the competitive selection process.

De Simone is a top-rated lawyer in Denver who is known for his expertise in handling DUI-DWI cases. He has been licensed to practice since 2012 and is skilled in several other areas of law, including family law, probate, and personal injury law. He was selected to the Rising Stars list in 2021, amid tough competition. Every year, Super Lawyers selects attorneys from all firm sizes and over 70 practice areas throughout the United States.

The first step is being nominated and entering the candidate pool. Lawyers enter the candidate pool by being formally nominated by a peer (or if identified by the research department during the research process). Each nomination carries a point value, and out-firm nominations have a greater point value than in-firm nominations. Lawyers are not allowed to nominate themselves and must limit their nominations to others who practice in the same state. The nominations are tracked in order to prevent foul play, and lawyers are also not allowed to engage in campaigning or the solicitation of nominations from other lawyers. De Simone, Denver?s DUI Attorney, passed this stage with ease. Learn more here: DUI Attorney Denver.

The next step in the selection is the research process. Attorney-led research staff searches for lawyers who have attained certain honors, results, or credentials, all signs which point towards a high degree of peer recognition or professional competence. For example, certification as a specialist in a particular area of practice, or admission to prestigious colleges or academies, such as The American College of Trial Lawyers. The staff identifies these credentials by reviewing a proprietary list of databases and online sources, including national and local legal trade publications.

The third step of the selection process is peer evaluation by practice area, also known as the ?blue ribbon review?. The candidates in each practice area with the highest score from steps one and two above are asked to serve on a blue-ribbon panel. They are then provided a list of candidates from their practice areas to review, rating them on a scale of 1-5. For the final selection, candidates are grouped into four firm-size categories. Those with the highest point totals from each category are selected. This means solo and small firm lawyers are compared with other solo and small firm lawyers, and large firm lawyers are compared with other large firm lawyers. 5% of the total lawyers in the state are selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers. Before announcing the finalists, the research staff checks each candidate's standing with the local licensing authority. Each candidate is asked to confirm that they have never been subject to disciplinary or criminal proceedings.

The lists are published annually in state and regional editions of Super Lawyers Magazines and in inserts and special advertising sections in leading city and regional magazines and newspapers. All attorneys selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers, regardless of year, can be found on the Super Lawyers website.

The DUI Law Firm, under the expertise of De Simone, aims to help their clientele make the best of a bad situation they may find themselves in. The firm offers their clientele the skill and knowledge that has come from extensive training in the science the other side is attempting to use to put the clients away. In the event the other party made mistakes or cut corners when they tested a person?s blood or breath, the firm will find these flaws and wield this information in their client?s favor. Their attorneys know the science involved, boasting extensive knowledge in gas chromatography and related tests that many other DUI attorneys do not have and cannot bring when representing a client. The firm takes pride in their exceptional knowledge of the law, including the subtleties the opposition is relying on the client not knowing or caring about. The firm has defended hundreds of cases, successfully helping their clients get the best possible outcome from a bad situation. The firm also ensures that each client has two attorneys with them if called to court, presenting a professional and well-prepared outlook deserving of the best outcome.
