Pittsburgh Adoption Agency Declare Upcoming Date For Webinar

April 08, 2021

April 08, 2021 -
Pittsburgh, PA - The Pittsburgh adoption agency at Adoptions From The Heart has announced their next webinar, an educational experience on transracial adoption and racism. To find more information on their Pittsburgh adoption agency, visit: https://afth.org/office-locations/pittsburgh-pa-adoption-agency/

The webinar will be held on April 21, 2021, from 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM through a zoom session. The zoom session will be held live from their Pittsburgh adoption agency at: 116 E Pittsburgh St, Greensburg, PA, 15601, USA.

Heidi Gonzalez, the Director from AFTH, shares the details of the webinar stating, ?As a transracial adoptee, Isaac Etter will review how systemic racism has affected adoption and our view of it. The presentation will address economic injustice, saviorism, and how implicit bias regarding birth families is woven into adoption, with the goal of preparing adoptive parents for ethical transracial adoption.?

The Pittsburgh adoption agency continues to serve its community and the surrounding areas, including Knoxville, Kennedy Township, Neville Township, Esplen, Westwood, Ridgemont, Oakwood, Cedarhurst, Bridgeville, Thompsonville, Library, South Park Township, Pleasant Hills, Crescent Hills, and Eastvue.

For those interested in signing up for the virtual educational opportunity, please email adoption@afth.org.
