Chilliwack, BC - Annual local contest surveys locals who nominate what companies and organizations offer the best value to their community.

JNB Appliance Wholesale in Chilliwack, British Columbia, has been declared a finalist for the Chilliwack Progress 2021 A-List, citing it as a local favorite store for discount appliances. Each year, the Chilliwack Progress asks locals to name their favorite businesses in a variety of categories the publication provides them with. This year, JNB was a finalist, company owners John Matina, James Peters, and Richard Poudrier feel very honored and humbled by the recognition from their community.

In a joint statement the owners said, "Our customers have stood by us even despite 2020 being a difficult year for all with COVID-19 affecting both businesses and all of our personal lives. We're incredibly grateful for their support, and continue to operate in the safest way possible, and through all of this we had a great 2020 and so far, 2021 has been exceptional with the support of our amazing and loyal clientele."

JNB Appliance Wholesale Ltd. offers deep discounts on top-of-the-line refrigerators, laundry machines, freezers, dishwashers, microwaves, and stoves, as well as wine and beverage coolers. This is because they specialize in scratch and dent, refurbished, overstock, reverse logistic inventory, and more ? often customers cannot tell the difference cosmetically, but certainly take delight in seeing the savings in the purchase price. JNB also offers maintenance and repair services as well as delivery and installation for appliances and appliance packages purchased from their store.

John says that they are focused on providing an exceptional experience at JNB every time. Competitive pricing, a knowledgeable staff, and no pushy incentives or hassles come together for a streamlined experience that makes working with JNB incredibly easy and worry-free. The company routinely earns top 5-star reviews from customers who praise the customer service, delivery experience, and great savings on quality appliances.
