

Provider of Full-Service Staffing Solutions Celebrates Recent Anniversary

April 15, 2021

April 15, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

COVINA, Calif. ? Recently, the Covina Express Employment Professionals office celebrated its 15th anniversary, according to Christine Miller, Managing Director of the business. The office first opened its doors in March of 2006 and has since provided both businesses and job seekers alike with temporary and full-service staffing solutions in a variety of fields, including administrative and office services, commercial, and light industrial positions in Covina.

?Express Covina is excited to see continued growth in our business throughout the pandemic,? said Miller, Managing Director. ?With a variety of available jobs that we are working to fill daily, it?s no secret there is a market shortage of qualified candidates. We remain committed to our clients, to continue to work harder to supply them with the talent they need.?

When looking to the future for the continued growth of their office, the team of staffing professionals is soon adding a new division under the name Specialized Recruiting Group, an Express Employment Professionals

Company. The newest division will focus on helping business owners find highly skilled talent to fill top-level positions in fields such as Legal, Sales, Human Resources, Information Technology, and more.

The Covina Express Employment Professionals franchise began operation in 2006 and serves the job seekers and local businesses in Los Angeles County and the surrounding areas, including Azusa, Avocado Heights, Baldwin Park, Covina, Diamond Bar, Glendora, Hacienda Heights, La Verne, Monrovia, Pomona, San Dimas, South San Jose Hills, West Covina, and Walnut with temporary help and direct hire employees in a variety of fields at all levels.
