September 25, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Etindo, a business in Sorrento, Naples, Italy, has announced that they have created a brand new web portal that allows people to view and book things to do in Naples. Those who want to book activities in Naples, Italy, can do so through the portal. At present, it covers not just Naples, but also Sorrento and the Amalfi Coast. It is expected that all of Italy will be covered by next year.

"Italy is such a beautiful country and we want everybody to have the opportunity to experience it at its finest," says Vincenzo Gargiulo from Etindo. "Operating from Naples ourselves, the first area that we wanted to cover was, obviously, Naples, but there is much more to offer as well. We encourage everybody to check out and bookmark our page and to use it in order to book themselves on some of the activities that this area has to offer."

Some of the activities that are currently offered through the website include a full day lemon tour from Positano, a Paestum and Mozzarella Full Day Tour from Positano, a Cruise Trip to Pompeii, Herculaneum and Vesuvius from Amalfi, and much more. Additionally, Etindo helps people find transportation to these activities, including transfers from Positano to Naples Airport. Full articles are also provided about the various areas, towns and cities that can give people an idea of what to expect.

"We also encourage everybody to follow us on Facebook," adds Vincenzo Gargiulo. "We use it to release new special offers and to provide further information. Additionally, it is an opportunity for people to tell us what their experiences of the area are, and how they have enjoyed the various activities they have booked through us."

Those who want to know what to see in Amalfi will be happy to know that it will be nothing short of magical. The lush green terraces that are suspended over the sparkling blue sea are like something straight out of a fairy tale. It is for good reason that it is known as the 'divine coast of the sirens' and those who visit it are likely to build memories that could last a lifetime.
