Ken Briesemeister, owner of Roof.net, says, ?We?re so proud to announce that we have once again won the Best of the Best National Award. This is the sixth year in a row that we have won this prestigious national award. Although it was not really a surprise because we have been continuously receiving five-star reviews on various platforms. These reviews don?t only make us proud but also provide us with feedback with regards to our goal of providing the best possible kind of service to our customers. We would like to assure our customers that we will continue to focus on providing the best possible service.?

In one of the recent reviews on Google, Roof.net received a five-star review from Chris T., who said, ?Our experience with Ken and his company was excellent, and consistent with many of the other reviews you'll find here and elsewhere on the web. Even though he's the owner with many obligations, Ken is highly attentive and works with you every step of the way. [?] If you're thinking about a replacement, it might be something you should try and ascertain before the work starts if you can, but Ken explained that it's not always possible until you can see the roof from the top. For us, at the end of the day, we have a beautiful new roof that we know will last a long time, and it really makes the house look fantastic from the street. Highly recommend this company if you're in the market for a new roof!?

Roof.net also has more than 700 reviews on Bird Eye and other platforms, which can be gleaned from https://birdeye.com/roofnet-151094828778589. On this platform, they also have an overall rating of 5.0 stars. For example, on BirdEye, Patrick E. gave them five stars and said, ?Ken and his crew made the daunting task of getting a roof replacement a very straightforward and painless process. Ken?s prompted response to my original request for a meeting and the thorough proposal he provided made it obvious that his team was the right one for the job. Pricing was more than competitive and the workmanship and clean up were top notch. I highly recommend Ken and his crew to anyone in need of a roof replacement or repair.?

Roof.net offers different kinds of roofing services in Fairfax and surrounding areas. These include roof inspection, roof repair, roof replacement, and roof cleaning. A home?s roofing starts to age and deteriorate right after it has been installed. Thus, homeowners and other property owners advised to schedule regular roof inspection. This will show if there are any hidden roof leaks as early as possible. This is important because water leaking into the home can damage its structure and other items in the home, such as furniture, carpets and other belongings. Wet parts of the home can also encourage the growth of black mold, which represent health risks for family members, especially for those who have asthma and other allergies.

Roof.net can provide same day roof repair for homes that have been damaged by strong winds or a falling tree or branch. They are always ready to provide emergency same day repair because water getting inside the home must be remedied as early as possible. Water can weaken the foundation and cause damage to other parts of the home or building.

Homeowners and other property owners who are interested in knowing more about the roofing services offered by Roof.net can check out their website, or contact them through the telephone or via email. They are open from Monday to Saturday, from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. Those who would like to know their location and other important information can go to their Google Maps page at https://goo.gl/Fuu2KV.
