Save A Tooth With The Best Root Canal Therapy In Bluffton, SC

April 30, 2021

April 30, 2021 -
Bluffton, SC - Off-Island Dental Clinic is offering the Best Root Canal Therapy In Bluffton, SC, a known solution to many dental problems.

The root canal is the space from the middle to the root of the tooth. The middle is known as the pulp chamber. According to dental experts, if a root is harmed, there can be a disease in the pulp. If not addressed, this problem can undermine the veins and nerves, which can cause a lot of pain.

While it sounds intimidating, root canal therapy is an essential endodontic treatment that can stop a patient?s agony, says Off-Island Dental. Dr. Michael D. Langehans of Off-Island Dental has performed numerous root canal therapy treatments.

The sought-after dentist from Off-Island Dental explained that root canal therapy involves opening the tooth and removing any damaged pulp. Cleaning, shaping, and filling the tooth are also steps in the process of a root canal. Lastly, the tooth is sealed. This type of treatment can be performed in a single visit for some, while others require multiple visits.

The Root Canal Therapy in Bluffton, SC treatment may cause swelling after the procedure, but it can be managed using over-the-counter pain relievers, according to Off-Island Dental.

Noting that the first step towards a beautiful, healthy smile is to schedule an appointment, Off-Island Dental offers free consultations for patients who want to know their teeth and gum condition. Besides root canal therapy, the dental company is also a leader in cosmetic dentistry, general dentistry, implant dentistry, oral surgery, dental bridges, crowns, and teeth whitening, among others.

?We will take care of you in a timely manner and with the courtesy of a well-trained, experienced and service-oriented staff,? states Off-Island Dental. The dental company has built a reputation for excellent service and care for every patient.

The dental office is owned and operated by Dr. Michael D. Langehans. He is an award-winning dental professional and an active community volunteer. He has a reputation for helping his patients achieve ?the perfect smile? by restoring missing and damaged teeth using the latest dental technology.
