Chattanooga, TN ? As with almost all businesses across the nation, the shipping industry has felt the effects of the pandemic. From changing the way packages are received and delivered, to the many delays shippers have experienced, the shipping industry has undergone plenty of changes within the last year. A Chattanooga Shipping Store, The Mail Box Store, is discussing some of the changes happening within the industry.

With more people working remotely and many businesses remaining closed, people are finding themselves home more often than ever before. As a result, online ordering and home-delivered goods are at an all-time high. The shipping industry is experiencing such a surge in demand that they are struggling to keep up with the number of orders being filled. In order to manage this increased demand, many companies have begun extending their estimated shipping times or even declining orders in some cases. A recent trend that many businesses have begun looking into is crowd-sourced delivery options.

Crowd-sourcing delivery is when businesses contract out their deliveries to a third party as a way to speed up delivery times. While crowd-sourced shipping is not a complete replacement for full-service shipping companies, it is a quick solution for delivering products directly from the local store to the consumer. Companies such as Shipt, Instacart, and Doordash also hire employees from local communities to complete these same-day deliveries.

As a full-service shipping center, The Mail Box Store of Chattanooga is an authorized shipping outlet for FedEx, USPS, and DHL, and they also offer a wide range of packaging products. The shipping experts at the store can also help customers track their parcels so they can rest easy during shipping delays.??For more information on shipping or any service offered, give?The Mail Box Store of Chattanooga?a call at?(423) 558-3340?or visit them online at?www.TMBSchatt.com.
