Colorado Personal Injury Law Firm Launches New Website

September 07, 2021

Aurora, Colorado - September 07, 2021 -
Denver, CO based Franklin D. Azar & Associates, P.C. is pleased to announce that they have launched a new website that features faster loading times, a more user friendly design and a more easily accessible description of all available services. Clients may visit the website today to gain insight into the scope of the firm's capabilities.

"Our single guiding principle is to provide resolute and effective legal representation for our clients," says a representative from the firm, "so that they can receive full and fair compensation for their injuries. Having offices conveniently located in Aurora, Denver, Colorado Springs, Greenwood Village, Pueblo, and Thornton allows us to be highly accessible to individuals and families throughout all of Colorado. This new website is yet another way that we are increasing our accessibility."

Franklin D. Azar & Associates is a personal injury law firm that primarily serves the residents of the greater Colorado area. They also serve class action clients in the Rocky Mountain region and the entire United States. Franklin D. Azar & Associates was founded by Franklin D. Azar back in 1987 to provide effective representation to clients who deserve full and fair compensation for their injuries, no matter the cause. Ever since its founding, the firm has remained dedicated to this cause, and this has led to its growth into the largest plaintiff-centered personal injury law firm in Colorado.

President and owner Franklin D. Azar has also earned a reputation as one of the top plaintiff's attorneys in Colorado by actively involving himself in cases all around the country. The cases that he has tackled involve a wide variety of topics, including wage and hour violations, bad faith insurance, product liability and various mass torts concerning pharmaceutical drugs and medical devices. One of the most notable cases that Mr. Azar has handled was a case against a football helmet manufacturer, which grew into one of the largest cases against a football helmet manufacturer in the history of the United States. In this case, he secured an $11.5 million verdict with $3.1 million of the verdict against Riddell, the primary provider of helmets to the National Football League.

Franklin D. Azar & Associates approaches cases with the mindset that they want to change corporate behavior for the better ? and for the sake of employees, consumers and investors. In pursuit of this objective, their attorneys have taken on many cases regarding wage and hour violations, dangerous drugs, defective products, improper or excessive fees associated with car loans, banking transactions, 401(k) plans and much more. They have the skill, experience and resources needed to take on large and formidable opponents in court. Despite the quality of their services, however, Franklin D. Azar & Associates continues to operate on a contingency fee basis. They also offer initial consultations for free.

Franklin D. Azar & Associates, P.C. has received great reviews from clients at their various locations. J. Sarantosauras says in a 5-Star Google review of the firm's Denver location, "After getting hit by a lady that ran a stop sign, me and my girlfriend were left injured and not sure what to do. I wasn't sure if trying to go after the insurance coverage was even worth it. One of the representatives from Frank Azar's office came all the way to my house on the weekend to meet with us. We decided to hire them. I was pleasantly surprised! With little effort from myself, they handled everything and were able to get me some funds after all of my medical expenses were taken care of. Thank you, Frank Azar, for fighting for me!"

B. Barker similarly says of their Aurora location, "I would definitely and highly recommend using Franklin D. Azar & Associates for any and all needs. My attorney not only went out of his way for me but kept me up to date on everything and made the process so much easier and faster. By the time everything was said and done, I was kept in the know how and understood every bit of it. He went out of his way to explain everything to me to the point where I understood everything and trusted him fully."
