San Diego, California based Remington Tattoo Parlor is reaching out to the wider community to share why they are the best tattoo shop in San Diego. The tattoo parlor, which is named after the Remington 1900?s typewriter, is among local tattoo enthusiasts' favorite spots.

Terry Ribera, tattoo artist and representative for the Remington Tattoo Parlor, says, ?Ever since Remington Tattoo Parlor opened, we have worked hard to ensure that every single person who walks in the door leaves completely satisfied with the service we provide. Today, after a decade of serving the people of San Diego and the surrounding areas, we are glad to be able to confidently say that we are easily the best tattoo shop in San Diego.?

Ribera?s sentiments are clearly echoed by the tattoo parlor?s customers, as evidenced by the high rating Remington Tattoo Parlor has on the Google platform. Eric Satterwaithe writes in his review, ?I had two tattoos I was looking to cover up. I found Terry's portfolio and I was sold. He was booked out for a year but it was definitely worth the wait. The consultation was great. He actually sketched out the tattoos in front of me, which I thought was very cool. I had eight appointments, total. Each one went very well. I could not be more happy with the results. Terry is definitely a great artist.?

In another review, Lindsey Cobb praises Terry and Remington Tattoo?s services. They say, ?I had an awesome experience at Remington. Terry did my work and in addition to being a very gifted artist, he is patient, professional and knowledgeable in his field. From his vast experience, he knows what types of tattoos and colors work best and stand the test of time. He covered most of my back with a custom design, and I always get compliments on his incredible work. I sat for 10 hours total, and I have to say he made it as pleasant as possible. Definitely book here if you want an amazing tattoo that will last.?

In addition to the talent and artistry of all the Remington tattoo artists, clients also praise the shop itself due to it?s post-industrial revolution 1920?s workshop theme, which is part of Remington Tattoo Parlor?s efforts to honor the heritage and history of tattooing. The tattoo shop strives to make each person comfortable during their visit. All of the equipment they use is sterilized, with new needles and inks for every client, every time. The shop assures that artists will also be happy to answer any questions anyone may have about their procedure and the aftercare of their new tattoo.

The tattoo parlor caters to a wide variety of tattooing styles, specializing in Traditional, Neo-Traditional, Black & Grey, Full Color, Biomechanical, Illustrative, Japanese, American, Dark Art, Spell, Black Work, Floral, Geometric, Pinup, Flash and Fully Custom Tattoos. Each artist has their strengths for a variety of styles, and Remington Tattoo Parlor encourages clients to meet the artists to learn more about each of their styles before choosing one.

Ribera says, ?Whether it?s your first tattoo or your fifteenth, a new tattoo or a cover-up, Remington Tattoo Parlor gives you access to the best tattoo artists in San Diego. Need ideas for your next tattoo? Looking to cover up an older piece that you no longer love? Our skilled tattoo artists can create custom pieces to fulfill your vision.
