Stickboy Names Felix Llubes as CEO: Technology growth is coming to Southwest Florida.

Fort Myers, Fla. (Feb. 10, 2021) - Passion, innovation, and intuitive leadership emanate from Felix Llubes as he takes the helm as CEO of what he plans on being the leading technology company in Southwest Florida, Stickboy.

Llubes has an extensive background in technology in a variety of positions from software development to leading companies with revolutionary technology. With a strong, ambitious vision for the future of Stickboy, he will be making a very large splash on Southwest Florida's technology landscape.

Llubes' vision for Stickboy includes becoming the regional leader in developing technologies, especially custom software, apps and Managed IT services. He plans on attracting the top talent in the industry to continue to grow the Stickboy team while building a strong company culture that is focused on the customer experience.

"Technology is constantly changing," said Lluberes. "It is important for companies to stay on top of the latest and greatest advancements and we are here to be their partner in that. Stickboy will continue to provide innovative technology services for all companies, large and small, while also educating the importance of technology for business growth."

"I am proud and honored to be part of the Stickboy family. I'm very excited about the future as we continue to grow the brand's strength in the community."

As an innovator, Lluberes aims to help companies adopt Artificial Intelligence strategies to stay competitive, improve profitability and maximize business valuation.

Lluberes sees many opportunities for continued growth and success as the region's investment in technology continues to grow. But at the core, managing quality and consistency are what he sees as being key for explosive growth for Stickboy.

"Felix is one of the most globally successful tech entrepreneurs to emerge from SWFL," said Reema Bhatia, Founder of Stickboy. "Everyone in the tech industry knows his name well in this region."

"For him to join us as an investor and CEO is a proud moment for the whole team and a validation of the hard work we put in every single day for our clients. He is a true visionary and SWFL needs tech leaders of his caliber."

When he isn't working on the next big thing, Lluberes enjoys spending time with his three children or driving fast cars. His children have also taken an interest in technology as his 7-year-old son is very interested in cryptocurrency.
