

New Braunfels Roofing Contractors Win Community Praise

May 24, 2021

New Braunfels, Texas - May 24, 2021 -
Texas based New Braunfels Roofing - Cool Roofs Inc. is reaching out to the community to show their appreciation for the outstanding support that they have received lately in the form of written reviews shared by satisfied customers. One of these reviews awarded the company a full 5-Star rating for completing a roof replacement project in the San Marcos area. The local roofers are no strangers to receiving such praise, however.

The 5 Star Review for Cool Roofs was written by Alli R. on Cool Roof's Google profile where the company enjoys an exceptional overall rating of 5 out of 5 Stars as well, aggregated over 130 unique comments. These reviews typically touch on several aspects of the company?s services, ranging from their customer service to their attentiveness, the quality of their work and the indisputable results they deliver.

In this particular review, the customer says, "Cool Roofs did an excellent job replacing our roof in San Marcos, TX. They consulted us after our roof was totaled in a hailstorm and displayed high-caliber customer service. The onsite team was quick, efficient and left the yard clean. Definitely recommend these guys!"

Colt Moncla of Cool Roofs states, ?It is always an honor to work with our clients to fulfill their projects, and we are always grateful for the opportunity to see their satisfaction once the job is done.? As one of the top-rated contractors in the area, Cool Roofs values their customers? feedback. Any comment, whether positive or otherwise, is taken to heart by the entire team as it helps them decide how they may proceed in the future. While criticism is vital in helping the company spot issues that need to be fixed immediately, they also respect customer input that tells them which aspects of their work are appreciated the most.

Notably, the company boasts many reviews that speak well of their work, and the community's support has only increased over the past few years. For instance, another review by Nathan W. states, If you're looking for a highly professional roofing service, look no further! Colt is very responsive and very professional. He was punctual when he arrived to provide a quote, provided a few different options at different price levels and explained everything thoroughly. He had the most competitive price and arrived on time to perform the job quickly as promised. Our roof still looks great. Colt even made sure to follow up to make sure we are happy. Highly recommend Cool Roofs!"

Cool Roofs in New Braunfels offers a broad selection of services, allowing local residents to rely on them all but exclusively regardless of the task at hand. Each service is designed to address a specific situation depending on the customer?s needs, and the company is equally comfortable working on residential and commercial properties. Furthermore, many will be pleased to learn that Cool Roofs takes environmental concerns into account on every job, taking various measures to reduce their impact on local fauna and flora.

For their residential roofing services, Cool Roofs offers Roof Restoration & Repair, Installation & Replacement (including Metal Roofing), Shingle Repair & Maintenance and Hail & Storm Damage Repair. Homeowners may expect each of these services to be affordable as well as prompt ? they are well aware of the fact that their community should be protected against all unforeseen situations.

Similarly, the company?s commercial roofing services are carried out by a team with over 300 successful roofing projects behind them. These services include Installation, Repairs, and Maintenance of Thermoplastic Polyolefin Roofing, Roof Coatings, Spray Foam Roofing and Metal Roofing.

All the work they do is carried out by licensed and insured professionals, guaranteeing safety, peace of mind and a successful conclusion to any project. Cool Roofs is also happy to provide free estimates to their customers, and they take pride in maintaining a high standard of customer service in every interaction. This includes transparency at every stage, from the estimate to the end of the job. These aspects, combined with the company?s insistence on using nothing but the highest-quality materials, is why many consider them to be the best roofing contractor in New Braunfels.
