Manassas, VA. - While not all graduating seniors will attend a traditional graduation ceremony, everyone deserves recognition after such a challenging year. Manassas' local trophy store Award Crafters wants families to savor this last moment before 2021's graduates move on to a university, the armed forces, a full-time job, or a gap year. The best way to celebrate 2021 graduates is with memorable gifts that will last a lifetime.

Diploma frames can be costly, especially for college graduates, making diploma frames the ideal gift for those graduating from college. A diploma frame provides the new graduate an elegant way to proudly display their hard-earned diploma in their home or brand-new office.

College graduates will also appreciate personalized mugs, crystal decanters, business card holders, or any item that would go well in a new office.

High school graduates are entering the years of all-nighters and not worrying about what they throw on every morning. Ideal gifts for these students include photo frames to remember their times in high school, coffee mugs, and tumblers. Some high school graduates may appreciate game sets, such as poker or card games, that they can utilize to kill time with their friends. College and high school graduates alike deserve to be celebrated after overcoming such trying obstacles over the last year.

Award Crafters was founded in 1964 and has been a dedicated member of the Manassas community ever since. Award Crafters takes pride in providing local, state, and federal government agencies with numerous recognition awards and recognition pieces since the company began its operation. The company's in-house graphics department, custom production capabilities, and experienced sales staff make no project out of reach.
