May 24, 2021 -

Joel's Pro Tree Service, a tree care company providing tree trimming, tree pruning, tree removal, emergency, and plant health care services in Ohio, has just landed another 5 star review from a satisfied customer by the name of Mindi. Mindi is one of over 100 people who have left a 5 star review for Joel's Pro Tree Service. The company is encouraging home or business owners to call and get high-quality, affordable tree care.

Mindi's 5 star review says, "Joel & his team were very professional & did a great job. They were able to do the job within days of giving the estimate & completed the service within a couple of hours. They also cleaned up everything & made it look like the tree had never been there. They got rid of the roots & even took away a small pile of sticks that I had previously collected. I would strongly recommend them and will use them again."

A spokesperson for the company responded to the review by saying, "We are absolutely delighted with the response from Mindi. It is encouraging words like these that keep us going. We try day in and day out to put our best foot forward with every customer. We feel that our discipline and integrity are rewarded every time we receive a positive review. We would like to thank Mindi again for the rating. We will continue serving Ohioans to the best of our ability and solving all of their arbor-related problems. Contact us today to hire us and find out why we are the best tree contractor in Beavercreek."

Joel's Pro Tree Service provides tree removal services such as storm damage tree services, emergency tarp installation for the roof, crane-assisted tree removal, stump removal, stump grinding, lot clearing, shrub pruning, shrub trimming, crown reduction, and tree elevation. The company also provides plant health care services such as deep rooting, insect disease management, tick control treatments, emerald ash borer treatments, emerald ash beetle trunk injections, spotted lanternfly treatments, and more. The company's tree trimming services include root crown excavation, hazardous tree assessment, soil analysis, shrub trimming, and dead wooding.

The company serves both commercial and residential clients. The company prides itself on its professionalism and work quality. It hires only the best and most experienced tree care specialists. The company's employees show up on time, analyze the work to be done, set up a secure perimeter to keep the residents or the business's customers safe and get to work. The crew performs its job with clinical precision, targeting only those areas of the tree that need to be cleared. The company employs the use of the latest technology and equipment to assist the professionals. The crew then performs a clean-up and leaves the area just as they found it, albeit with the tree problem solved and in the past.

When asked about the business's work philosophy, the spokesperson for Joel's Pro Tree Service says, "We are a full-service tree care contractor. We are the ones you call when you have any tree or plant-related problem and are looking for more than just tree removal. We identify the problem and suggest the exact solution that will keep the plant alive while making it safe for those who are affected by it. If you want the whole tree gone, we take care of that too. We are flexible in our approach. This is only possible because of the many years of experience amongst our crew and founders. Ask any of our past customers about their experience with Joel's Pro Tree Service in Beavercreek and you will only get positive reactions. We have earned our keep through our unmatched expertise and customer service."

Joel's Pro Tree Service has been screened and approved by HomeAdvisor. The business has been accredited by the Better Business Bureau. They offer free no-obligation estimates. There are no hidden fees and all pricing is honest and upfront. The business is locally owned and operated by Ohio residents.
