Cowboy Party Rentals has received great reviews from their clients. Lynda G. says in a Facebook review, "We rented one of their big water slides this weekend for a family cookout, and it was excellent and perfect service as always. We have rented from them for several years, whichever slide or bounce house we order is always clean and arrives on time, and the staff is super super friendly and always gives you complete instructions on use. All of their products arrive super clean and ready to use. Thanks again for another successful party at the Groom's!?"

Lisa J. says in another Facebook review that the company delivered, "Great customer service, and they made everything easy. I booked ahead of time pretty far out to ensure we got what we wanted, but ended up seeing another inflatable on their website I thought would work better. I called, and they were able to switch my order, no problem! The set up and take down were quick and efficient, and everyone was really polite. We also appreciated the fact that they came out to Grandview for us, which isn't that far away, but not everyone knows where we are!?"
