CA based San Diego Kids Party Rentals is delighted to share that they have experienced a great deal of support from their community in the time since they first started offering their services. The company, which has been providing fun party rentals for San Diego and the surrounding areas for more than 10 years, has long discovered what it takes to make a good party great. As a result, their customers and their children benefit from this expertise the most, and this is evident in the feedback the company receives.

Brian Tasto's brief but glowing 5-Star Google review says, "We recently had a birthday party for my daughter, who was turning six years old. San Diego Party rentals took care of all the details. Despite the changes in weather they were on point, on time and took away all the stress of planning and participating in my daughter's big day. Thank you again."

Among the company's most popular and recognizable offerings are bounce houses, slides (which come in multiple varieties), obstacle courses, carnival games and so on. This list represents only a slice of San Diego

Kids Party Rentals? catalog, however. The company can also provide inflatable movie screens for large outdoor viewing parties, sky dancers, special effects machines, concession stands and more. Notably, parents can rely on the company to provide all the tables and chairs they need for virtually any type of party their child would want ? and an outdoor party can still have some shelter from the elements since the company can also set up tents if required.

Above all, however, the team at San Diego Kids Party Rentals is committed to delivering exemplary customer service. The company understands that party planning can be a stressful experience, and this is why they aim to take as much of the hassle away from the parents who work with them. All they have to do is pick their party?s date and time, browse and select the rentals they are interested in, enter their information and decide between paying a small deposit or paying in full. San Diego Kids Party Rentals even takes the extra step of guaranteeing free delivery.

One of the hallmarks of a team that is dedicated to their customers is consistently good service that delivers great results over a long period. Meredith Fidler?s review serves as a look back into the company?s efforts in the past, revealing that they have always done their utmost to ensure party goers enjoy themselves and have nothing to worry about regarding their rentals. The review says, ?We have used San Diego Kids Party Rentals for a few parties and have had great experiences. Making the reservations was easy via their website and when I had a few questions, I received all the answers I needed via phone. We rented their kid size tables and chairs for our son's second birthday party at a park. The chairs are not folding chairs, which was very important to me since I nearly lost a finger in a folding chair at that age. Delivery and pick-up were right on time, and the tables and chairs were clean when they arrived.?

The review adds, ?This year we rented the Dr. Seuss bouncy house for my daughter's birthday. It was delivered right on time and was in spotless condition. Not faded at all and very clean! The set-up was amazingly fast, and the delivery guys were very polite and answered our kid's questions patiently. The pick-up was right on time and again was incredibly fast. I will definitely rent from here again.?

San Diego Kids Party Rentals has since updated their equipment to comply with modern standards, a practice they say helps them keep up with customer demand as well as improve safety ratings. On top of this, children?s tastes tend to change over time, and the company works hard to keep up with evolving trends. This means that parents can always expect their children to find something they will be happy with ? and be as safe as possible at the same time.

San Diego Kids Party Rentals caters to backyard parties, large corporate events and everything in-between. Those interested may contact the team by phone or email to discuss their party?s needs in greater detail.
