White Duck Outdoors focuses on putting customers first and as part of their White Duck Cares initiative, they offer free shipping on all orders, without minimums. While some stores have surprise shipping costs at checkout that can hinder a purchase, White Duck?s zero shipping fee policy removes any hesitations from consumers.

Salt Lake City, Utah, The United States:: White Duck Outdoors has stayed true with their commitment to the American public in the lower 48 states with their White Duck Cares initiative. White Duck Cares is a company policy that puts customers first by offering free shipping, a limited lifetime warranty, no-hassle returns and 24/7 customer support.

As part of their lasting commitment, White Duck offers free shipping for all their products with no minimum order required.

Although the company?s margins have been impacted by COVID-19, White Duck hasn?t wavered in their policies and continues to look out for the needs of the consumer.

This is especially helpful when investing in higher value items like canvas tents. There are various sizes to choose from, depending on preference. For their Wall Tents, sizes start at 8'x10' and go up to 16'x24'. These tents are perfect for family camping, hunting trips and glamping stays.

White Duck also offers luxury bell tents that are ideal for pop-up events, glamping and general camping excursions.

The company supplies durable and classic duffel bags to store all camping accessories and personal items while camping. All bags are made in a traditional, rugged style with a focus on quality and capacity.

Canvas Tarps and Poly Tarps can also be purchased from their online store. With over 15 sizes to choose from, one can find the perfect tarp for almost any use case.

White Duck acknowledges the consumers as their top priority by providing outdoor products that matter and last longer. The free shipping offering is only one part of White Duck?s customer-first initiatives.
