

Bali Real Estate Company Propertia Bali Announces Exclusive Collaboration With Lifestyle Brand Bali Interiors

June 10, 2021

June 10, 2021 -

Canggu-based real estate company Propertia Bali recently announced that it will be working exclusively with high-end photography and lifestyle brand, Bali Interiors.

Co-founder of Propertia Bali, Peter Rabjerg Rasmussen, talks about the partnership by saying, "This collaboration is not only marketing-related but it also seeks to highlight everything related to living in Bali. This a new way and a unique chance for Propertia Bali's customers to reach the strongest potential Bali buyers through a fantastic social media platform like Bali Interiors. We will be advertising the very best properties from Propertia Bali in Bali Interiors media. We will also be doing relevant and informative videos, podcasts, and editorial posts on social media to help our customers in the best way possible way. Propertia Bali and Bali Interiors' business philosophies are very aligned and both companies want to tell the whole world about this beautiful and unique island."

Bali Interiors is a leading Bali media company focusing on furniture, real estate, and lifestyle products. The media company is dedicated to showcasing and promoting beautiful interiors and exteriors in Bali. The company's unique selling point is that it photographs each venue itself, thus creating its own unique content. The company claims to carefully curate its content and present the highest quality locations and interiors on the island. Bali Interiors provides its readers and followers with inside information on the newest and most beautiful places to stay, dine, pamper, shop, and relax. Bali Interiors' work has been published in Elle Decor Italia, Adore Magazine, Your Home Garden NZ, Living Etc UK, House and Garden, and many other world-class publications.

Propertia Bali is a fully government-licensed real estate agent in Bali with a certified SIU-P4. It is also a certified member of Arebi, the association of real estate agents. It has more than 10 years of experience connecting buyers and sellers in the Bali real estate market. The company prides itself on giving its customers the absolute best customer service experience that the island has to offer. The company models its services on European real estate agents and strives to achieve the same level of quality. The company has an international and professionally trained team with lots of experience in the industry. Its agents speak fluent English and Bahasa. The company also boasts of well-established, working relationships with a comprehensive and trustworthy network of partner estate agencies, developers, banks, architects, builders, interior designers, and rental and property management companies. The company claims to connect its clients with the best lawyers and notaries, who will give them the best advice in order to facilitate a smooth and pleasant experience all the way.

Peter Rabjerg Rasmussen talks about the company's strengths by saying, "Our strength is the team of professionals that we have assembled. They care deeply about our clients and are ready to help them through any problem they may be facing. It can be difficult to venture out of one's comfort zone and buy property thousands of miles away in an unknown country. We want to make the process as seamless and friction-free as possible. We understand the concerns of our international clients and do everything we can to ease their fears. We have been doing this for years and have helped hundreds of clients find happiness on this island paradise. Check out our services if you are in the market for buying or selling property in Bali. We are sure that we can help you find the best deal that suits your needs."

Propertia Bali can be contacted at the phone number at +62 361 3003478 and WhatsApp number at +62 (0) 818 0888 7711, you can also contact the company over email at contact@propertiabali.com. The company's website at <https://www.propertiabali.com/> lists over 850 properties for sale or rent as of the time of writing. Each listing is accompanied by property details, pictures, and a price in IDR, the local currency.

###

For more information about Bali Real Estate, contact the company here: Bali Real EstateBali Real Estatecatchall@stagesite.link

Bali Real Estate

Website: <https://firstpropertychoice.com/>

Email: catchall@stagesite.link

