Conversion Strategies, a company based in Rockford, IL, is happy to announce that they have recently updated their Wordpress website maintenance service plans with new features and pricing. They now offer the Silver Plan and the Gold Plan. The company offers small business website maintenance plans for WordPress websites. Their WordPress website maintenance services provide local business owners with an affordable service for editing, hosting, updating, monitoring, and securing their websites. Their website maintenance plans are designed to be a fast and convenient option to help small business owners optimize the potential and ROI of their website and business online.

Dave Mulcahy, President of Conversion Strategies, says, "Let us take care of everything for you. Our professional services for website management include everything ? hosting, requested content edits, ongoing maintenance, software updates, security and uptime monitoring, and much more at an affordable, flat-rate pricing. Don't need a monthly plan? No problem. Get started by handing over your simple website edit tasks. Purchase credits and complete the website edit form, and sit back while our team takes care of your edit. We backup all sites before completing any work."

The Silver Plan for their Wordpress website maintenance plans is available at $79 per month plus $297 for a one-time setup. Its features include: daily website backups; routine software updates and maintenance; security and malware monitoring; 24/7 uptime monitoring; monthly report; premium WP plugins included; email & SMS chat support; and one free website edit per month.

The Gold Plan is available at $149 plus $297 for a one-time setup. Its features include: daily website backups; routine software updates and maintenance; security and malware monitoring; 24/7 uptime monitoring; monthly report; premium WP plugins included; email and SMS chat support; unlimited website edits; and Woocommerce sites included.

It should be noted that a "website edit" is any WordPress task that requires 30 minutes or less to complete. These tasks are usually; updating content on a page, adding a slider image, fixing contact forms, fixing broken links or pages, adding or formatting a blog post, updating hours or class schedules, adding pixels or tracking codes, adding new plugins, and more. Graphic design and content creation are not considered as "website edits." In the event that the website edit takes longer than 30 minutes, Conversion Strategies may request the client to purchase additional credit or offer an estimate of the additional costs to complete the project.

Website edits without a plan are available for $49 per credit. These include: full website backup; one credit per task up to 30 minutes to complete; email and chat support. It should be noted that content creation and graphic design are not included.
