Straight Arrow Roofing, a company based in Brantford, Ontario, Canada, is proud to announce that they have received another five-star review. They have been providing quality roofing service to clients in the Brant Region and nearby areas for the past 10 years, earning the reputation of being a roofing expert. In the mentioned customer review, the customer expressed her satisfaction with the roof replacement the company had provided for her shingled roof and her gable flat roof.

Straight Arrow Roofing was established by Joel Guerra, who started by using his own truck to carry the various materials for a roofing job. Nevertheless, Joel Guerra is proud to point out that even if the company has such a humble beginning, the expertise of his staff and the commitment of the founder made an indelible mark in the industry, making the company known as a roofing expert. After five years, the company is different from the original company, At present, they are well-established and are able to provide their services to a bigger market.

In the Straight Arrow Roofing customer review, Denise R. gave them five stars and said, ?If I could I would give Straight Arrow Roofing Company 10 stars. They replaced my shingled roof as well as my gable flat roof.

This company is 'The Gold Standard' of roofing. Joel is educated and very knowledgeable about roofing systems. He is able to point out potential problems in a roof?s structure to his customers before they happen. I?m impressed with his crew and their workmanship and attention to detail. They looked professional in their black hoodies displaying the company logo. It?s impressive to see roofing companies evolve and use the latest computer technology to measure the pitch of the roof, and take before and after photos to assist the customer. Up until now I never thought I would hear of a 40-50 year roof. Shingled roofs have come a long way. Thank you Straight Arrow.?
