Homeowners in the San Diego area can now get their wood decks repaired by a team of experts. The company, Best Rate Repair, has been repairing decks since 1999 and has over 30 years of experience. "We take pride in our work so we make sure to do it right," says owner Jeff Mudd. "Best Rates provides a variety of services including straightening boards, recreating fascia boards, and removing old nails." All repairs are completed on-site which helps homeowners save time with less need to wait for an appointment or go back to the store after purchasing materials they need.

With the dry, hot weather California's been having, it's not uncommon for people to start noticing their wood decking is starting to rot. The best way to repair a damaged deck can be rather tricky and may require some expertise so you don't do more damage. Luckily, Best Rate Repair has had years of experience repairing decks with all sorts of problems. "If your wood deck needs a little love or if you're looking for someone who knows how to fix them right the first time - give us a call," the company says. "We'll come out and give an estimate on what repairs are needed as well as any necessary insurance paperwork that might need filling out."
