July 09, 2021 -

Fresh Page Home Improvement, a company based in West Dundee, IL, that offers the services of licensed roofing and general contracting professionals in Northern Illinois, has dispatched some of its personnel to help people in Woodridge who have been affected by the tornado that hit the Chicago suburbs Woodridge, Napierville and Darien on June 20, 2020. The tornado brought winds with speeds of 136 to 165 mph, which caused a lot of destruction, including the uprooting of trees and severe destruction of several houses.

Patrick Page, owner of Fresh Page Home Improvement, says, ?We are very much saddened by the massive destruction caused by the tornado. Thus, we have sent some of our professionals to Woodridge to help homeowners who have their homes badly damaged by the tornado.?

He continues, ?We are a full-service storm damage contractor offering homeowner relief throughout Northern Illinois. Using the best tools, techniques, and tradesmen available helps us show our commitment to our clients that all the work done will be done appropriately, the first time.?

Fresh Page Home Improvement is a leader in home improvement and home repair and it continues to provide quality craftsmanship at a reasonable price whether the project is a roof repair or total replacement, a major home renovation or just some minor improvements, or even a homeowners emergency call to recover from storm damage. That is why the company sent some of its experienced and skilled personnel to offer assistance in Woodridge, where there was substantial damages to homes.

The core services provided by Fresh Page Home Improvement are: home improvement; roof repair and replacement; and storm damage recovery. Natural disasters, such as tornadoes, hurricanes, fires, and floods, can cause a lot of destruction. The trained and experienced professionals of the company can help in repairing the damage efficiently and affordably, allowing homeowners to feel safe and secure in their homes again.

There are a number of factors that make Fresh Page Home Improvement stand out among its competitors. These include their: integrity and dependability; commitment to their clients; guaranteed peace of mind; and the licensed, insured and bonded professionals that make up the company.

Fresh Page Home Improvement has developed a reputation of being a leader in disaster recovery. These include: hail damage, flood damage, and fire damage. A hail storm can cause significant damage to homes. Homeowners will require the services of hail damage recovery professionals to properly evaluate the situation and apply the required repair and replacement solution. Some of the common damages caused by hail are: metal components denting; bald spots; and shingle fracturing.

Fresh Page Home Improvement can also help with providing the remedies necessary for flood damage restoration. Their flood damage restoration experts can help homeowners by assessing the damage and the situation and then recommend the necessary steps to take to get rid of the water, do the necessary cleaning, and perform the necessary repairs.

Meanwhile, the professionals at Fresh Page Home Improvement can also help homeowners whose homes have been damaged by fire. They are always ready to offer the best possible fire damage restoration services designed to prevent further damage and save the residential or commercial building.

They will take a number of stops in providing fire restoration services. These include: evaluating the fire damage; ensure that anything that may cause further damage is removed; proper decontamination to remove soot, dust, and other contaminants; and provide the necessary repairs to bring back the building to is previous state before the fire.

Meanwhile, the services they have provided have been praised by previous customers. For instance, a customer, Edward J., gave them a five star rating and said, ?Fresh Page did an amazing job with our roof replacement. I highly recommend Patrick and his company. The entire crew was courteous and respectful of our home. Every measure was taken to protect our windows and even the gutters all throughout the roof replacement. I highly recommend fresh page.?

Those who are interested in the storm damage recovery and other services provided by Fresh Page Home Improvements can check out their website, or contact them on the phone or through email. They are open from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm, from Monday to Saturday.
