People looking to rent same-day dumpsters from the company are advised to contact the company beforehand to confirm deliveries before booking.

The company specializes in providing small dumpster rentals to customers. They have 10-yard dumpster rentals that hold a ton of material for better visualization around four pickup truck loads of waste or junk. The dumpster rental cost for their containers depends on the length of each rental. Individuals can rent their 10-yard dumpster at $295 for 1 to 7 days of use. Charlotte Dumpster Rentals also has a $7 per day additional charge for extended dumpster rental periods, and the charge is applicable beginning from the 8th day. They also have a $75 per ton additional charge for materials exceeding the given 1-ton weight limit for the rental dumpsters.

On their website, the company states that they may charge customers additional charges if they wish to dispose of mattresses or tires as per landfill disposal rates for these items. For example, they charge $30 per mattress disposal and $15 per tire disposal. Charlotte Dumpster Rentals also charge a $125 dry run fee applicable in cases where a driver cannot pick up the rental dumpster because of an obstruction on pickup day. They also charge a $35 Credit Card Denial fee.

Charlotte Dumpster Rentals offer rental bins for DIY junk removal projects, residential new construction and remodeling or renovation projects, roofing dumpster rentals, construction dumpster rentals, and commercial dumpster rentals. In addition, their bin rentals are handy for the removal of yard waste & storm debris, commercial foreclosure cleanouts, temporary and recurrent commercial services, and household attic or basement cleanouts.

Based on the many positive online reviews and recommendations it has received, the company seems to have established itself as a dependable dumpster rental service in Huntersville, Concord, and Charlotte. They have been reviewed on Yelp, Google, and Facebook.

Their website shows that the company opens at 7 am and closes at 6 pm from Monday to Saturday. While people can still book rental dumpsters and schedule deliveries on the company's website at any time, Charlotte Dumpster Rentals does not operate on Sundays and consequently cannot deliver or pick up containers.
