West Coast Marketers, a leading review site for internet marketing products based in Beverly Hills, California, has just launched a comprehensive review about the latest product ReviewTrust by Brad Callen. This product is said to increase the sales and conversions of products and services by providing plenty of social proof which is a proven factor in building trust for customers.

"It completely automates the collecting, gathering, displaying and incentifying the process of collecting testimonials," says Thomas E. Stinnett, CEO of West Coast Marketers, when asked about the best feature of Review Trust. "Having fresh and plenty of social proof on all of your products is proven to double sales if not more." He also added that he puts emphasis in building trust as one of the most important factors in getting high conversions and sales.

West Coast Marketers has been providing honest reviews of the latest internet marketing products released online. It also showcases the features and benefits that helps potential product buyers to decide whether the products completely fit their needs. According to the site, they also provide bonuses if you purchase via their referral links.

Thomas also urges the visitors of the site to frequently visit it to get more updates about internet marketing products released. Those interested may visit them on their official site including their latest Review Trust review post. Thomas said he considered it as one of the best products they have seen so far in the market. Moreover, he also added an exclusive bonus only for this product.
